Ocean Theatre Company divinely presents

Sister ACT

Based on the smash hit movie starring Whoopi Goldberg and Maggie Smith, SISTER ACT tells the hilarious story when disco diva Deloris Van Cartier witnesses a murder, and is put into protective custody in the one place cops are sure she won't be found - a convent! Disguised as a nun, she finds herself at odds with both the rigid lifestyle and an uptight Mother Superior. Using her fabulous disco-ness Deloris breathes new life into the church, but in doing so blows her cover and soon it's nun-on-the-run time.

SISTER ACT features original music by the multiple Oscar and Tony Award winner Alan Menken whose credits include Disney's "Beauty and the Beast", "Aladdin" & "The Little Mermaid" plus "Little Shop of Horrors".

SISTER ACT features an original score with a vast inspiration of musical styles from Motown, soul and funk to great big disco anthems and Barry White. SISTER ACT is the feel-amazing musical comedy and a sparkling tribute to the universal power of friendship. SISTER ACT is a reason to REJOICE. A wonderful, family friendly, feel good show.

IT WOULD BE A SIN TO MISS IT!

Carve The Best Pumpkin

Carving Jack O' Lanterns dates back to an old Celtic holiday, Samhain. People carved scary looking turnip lanterns and lit them with candles to ward off spirits. When the Irish migrated to America, they found that pumpkins grown there were much easier to carve so adapted their custom.

My children love to carve pumpkins. Oh who am I kidding, my husband and I love it too and over the years our designs have become more ambitious. Here are a few tips.

Start with the right pumpkin. It should be fresh with a sturdy stem, no bruises and a flat bottom so it won't roll. A smooth one is easier to carve and if you can find one with a flatter 'face' so much the better.

Use proper safety pumpkin carving sets. No-one wants to spend Halloween sat in the accident and emergency department dressed as Dracula's Bride. Ok that was the one year I did NOT use proper pumpkin saw and I was more at risk at dying from embarrassment than the blood loss but don't risk it folks.

Cut the lid using the saw angled in towards the stem. That way the lid won't drop inside the pumpkin when you replace it.

Scoop out all the pulp and some of the flesh - an ice cream scoop works brilliantly.

You can now download patterns from the internet. These are terrific if you have limited artistic skills like me. Tape the pattern to the pumpkin (make little cuts around the edge of the pattern if the pumpkin is a bit too round, and that way it will fit better). Then use a pin or small nail to puncture the paper and the outer skin of the pumpkin at intervals of around 1/4 inch / 0.5 cm, or even closer for intricate designs.

If it's difficult to see your poked-out pattern, rub a little corn flour or baby powder into the dots. The dots will turn bright white and your design will magically appear.

Carve the tiniest sections first. Then carve the areas in the centre of the pattern, and then work outwards. That way you can rest your hand on the uncut bits of pumpkin, not your carved-out design.

Rather than always cutting all the way through the pumpkin try just removing some of the skin. The yellow flesh underneath will glow when lit up from inside.

Spread Vaseline on the cut edges to seal in moisture. If you have to carve it a few days in advance and it shrivels you can revive it with a face-down soak in cold water.

Pumpkin carving is a great activity for all the family. You can make it competitive, or have a theme for your pumpkins, or invite friends over for a pumpkin carving party. Just don't end up in casualty wearing a wild wig and face paint. A safe Halloween is a Happy Halloween!

Penny for the Guy

When I was a child we used to make a guy. We'd stuff a shirt and an old pair of trousers with newspaper or hay and top it with a papier-mâché head or a balloon wearing a mask. We'd then proudly wheel it in a barrow to the guy competition in our village and the winning one would receive a prize. Then they would all be burned on the bonfire on November 5th. My dad remembers as a child wheeling his homemade effigy round the village where he grew up shouting 'Penny for the Guy.' Any money he and his friends made was spent on fireworks which they set off either in their gardens or in the local park! Guy-making is a tradition which seems to have died out...possibly on the grounds of health and safety.

Nowadays it being eclipsed by Halloween. Most families prefer to attend a closely controlled public event on the closest weekend to November 5th. In a few places though the tradition of the guy still continues in a more traditional form with street processions and blazing barrels of tar!

Bonfire Night was once the only day of the year when fireworks were seen in Britain, but firework displays are now commonplace at weddings, big public events and New Year. The significance of fireworks has been somewhat lost which is a bit of a shame as it's a part of British folklore. Perhaps this year we should make an effort to bring back the Guy.

House Plans & Architectural Drawings

We provide a complete design and planning service for householders who wish to improve or enlarge their homes.

We specialise in preparing plans for approval and will deal with all the paperwork. We will visit you to talk over your requirements, suggest design ideas to make your project a success and submit your plans for approval.

We have spent many years working 'hands on', building extensions and new homes to NHBC standards, enabling us to bring a wealth of practical experience to your project.
